

Miss Stuhlman's Class Resources:

Educational Practices:

1. Read with your child daily
2. Continue daily name writing practice
3. Engage in daily conversation about the day of the week, month, and the weather. Ask your child about Lion and Lamb weather.
4. Encourage conversations on topics such as transportation, light, shadows, the 5 senses, family, and where we live.
5. Continue letter, number, color, shape recognition
 - a. You can do various activities such as bingo, flashcards, board games (memory, bingo, candyland, chutes and ladders)

Our next topic is water, if you would like you can do different activities at home exploring water such as:

- what will sink and what will float
- Make a boat out of paper / aluminum foil, wrapping paper, tissue paper, anything around the house
- Discuss where water is, what happens when it changes temperature, sinking/floating, and how does water help us
