

Snow Poems and Songs

January Good Morning Poem

Good morning to the mittens,
Good morning to the cap,
Good morning to the cabin in the snow,
Good morning to the igloo,
Good morning to the sled,
Good morning to the friendly Eskimo.

I'm a Little Snowman(teapot tune)

I'm a little snowman, round and fat,
Here are my buttons, here is my hat,
When the sun comes out I cannot stay,
I just simply melt away!

It is Snowing (Are you Sleeping)

It is snowing
It is snowing
All around
All around
Soft and quiet snowflakes
Soft and quiet snowflakes
Not a sound
Not a sound

Hello, Mittens(Goodnight Ladies)

Hello, Mittens!
Hello, Mittens!
Hello, Mittens!
You keep my hands so warm!

Repeat with:
Boots/feet
Hat/head
Scarf/neck
Jacket/body

Way up high
In the winter sky,
Two little snowflakes
Caught my eye.
Down to the ground
They fell without a sound.
And before very long,
It was snowing all around!

Whirling Twirling Snowflakes (Twinkle Twinkle)

Whirling, twirling, soft and white,
Snowflakes flurry day and night.
Whirling, twirling, high then low.
Whirling, twirling, fast then slow.
Whirling, twirling, soft and white,
Snowflakes flurry day and night.

Winter's Coming

Winter's coming! Winter's coming!
Here comes snow! Cold winds blow!
Wintertime will thrill us,
Wintertime will chill us,
From head to toe, head to toe.

Itsy-Bitsy Snowflake

The itsy-bitsy snowflake
Fell down from the sky.
It landed on my nose
And it bounced upon my eye.
It slid down my chin
And it landed on my tongue.
Then it melted all away.
My snowflake is done!
